(the „Company“)

2. The Privacy Policy (the „Policy“) applies to the web portal mimaci.sk, mimaci.eu, mimaci.com (the „Portal“) and to all websites located on this web portal (the „Website“) and to all users of the Website (the „User“).

3. Please review the Policy as soon as you visit the Website. Each User is obliged to become acquainted with the Policy before Using the Website. The User agrees to the Policy by Using the Website. If you do not agree with the Policy or you are not entitled to give consent to the Policy, do not use the Website and immediately leave the Website.

4. The Company is entitled to alter or amend the Policy at any time. The amendment is effective as of the publication of the new version of the Policy on the Website.

5. A person under the age of 18 and a person who has not legal capacity to legal acts in a full extent must not state any Personal Data on the Website. In the event that the User is such a person, the User needs a written consent from the legal representative, guardian or other person authorized to act on behalf of the User to use the Website and related services, making purchases or doing any other legal acts, except when such activities are permitted in the country of the applicable law.

6. Based on the Policy, the Company has the right and the User grants consent to the Company to use any personal data (the „Personal Data“), that the User has stated on the Website, in particular by writing in the forms, especially when registering or, by other way of obtaining the Personal Data when using the Website. The Personal data include, in particular,

- a) the name and surname and degree of the User,
- b) the IP address of the User,
- c) the User's nickname,
- d) the User's e-mail address.

7. The User gives consent to the Company, in particular, to

- record the Personal Data into a database,
- domestic and cross-border transmission of the Personal Data to the database and to the server on which the database is stored,
- retransmission from the database to the Website,
- any other use of the Personal Data that is required by the Company in order to operate the Web Portal or the Website, or to alter or amend the Website.

8. The User grants consent to the Company to disclose the Personal Data stated on the Website, in particular, to the following persons:

- employees of the Company,
- statutory and other bodies of the Company,
- representatives of the Company,
- suppliers and subcontractors of the Company, in particular third persons with whom the Company is or will be in a contractual relationship.

9. Because of the constant risk associated with the provision of personal data, whether in person, by telephone or through the Internet, and because no technology system is absolutely safe and resistant to hackers, the Company has taken measures to prevent and minimize the risk of unauthorized access, misuse or inaccuracies of the Personal Data. When collecting or transmitting sensitive data, e.g. information about the payment card, the Company uses the encryption technology.

10. The Company, of its own will or at the request of the User, completes, corrects or deletes any incomplete, inaccurate or out-of-date personal data obtained by the Company in connection with the operation of the Website.

11. The User may in principle use the Website for information purposes without having to provide the Company with the Personal Data. The Company or third persons designated by the Company have the right to obtain information or various information, including Personal Data from the User's computer (in particular, by placing in the computer). This information is referred to as "cookies". Cookies are stored on the hard disk on the User's computer and not on the Website.

12. The Company and third persons designated by the Company may only use information that they themselves have placed in cookies through the Website, other Websites located on the Portal or through other Company's Websites.

13. If the User disagrees with the use of cookies or requires to be notified about their adoption, the User must set up the User's Internet browser in this way and use Internet browser that supports such settings. With cookies disabled, the User may not always have the right to view certain Websites and parts of the Portal, nor will be able to download certain content from the Website and/or use some tools, in particular some payment tools.

14. The Company will also use cookies to manage, optimize, and display advertisements based on prior User's visits.

15. The Company also has the right to use technology that allows the Company to collect certain technical information specified by the Company, such as the User's Internet Protocol (IP) address, the type of operating system used by the User, the type of Internet browser and the address of other linked websites.

16. The Company may at any time prevent anyone from accessing the Website or its content without prior notice.
